3rd of October: Discerning the Timing to the ends of the earth (Esther 4:14)

■ Welcome

Have you ever felt like “I have to do this” lately? Also, share how God touched you through Grace Time this week.

■ Text: Esther 4:14

For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance for the Jews will arise from another place, but you and your father's family will perish. And who knows but that you have come to your royal position for such a time as this?”

■ Introduction

It is very important for us to live with spiritual sensitivity to hear God's voice in our life of faith. Especially for those of us who are living in this age of rapid spiritual and moral degeneration, we must be more sensitive to God's voice.

In Noah's day, the world was full of sins to the extent that God lamented that He created man. At that time, God said to Noah. “Prepare the ark.” Noah and his family hear the voice and obey it. As a result, when the world is judged by a flood, the family is saved.

Today's text is also about people who heard God's voice in a similar crisis. Haman's scheme puts the entire Jewish people in danger of being annihilated. Thus, on December 13, an order was issued to kill all Jews living throughout the Persian Empire. At that time, Mordecai urgently conveys the news to Queen Esther. Through the spiritual sensitivity and obedience of that one woman, God saved the nation from the brink of destruction.

■ Observation Question: What is the Lord's message through Mordecai?

Answer 1. Discern the Timing

Esther was immersed in the peace of the royal palace and did not realize the crisis. Mordecai informs the Jews of the desperate situation through today's words.

(1 Thessalonians 5:3) While people are saying, “Peace and safety,” destruction will come on them suddenly, as labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

Many people in this age are immersed in selfishness that only thinks about themselves. The saints must be vigilant so that they can discern the situation of the times. To discern the situation is to read the flow of the times and to understand God's providential hand.

[What time is it now?]

1. The time of spiritual depravity in the last days

① False Prophet

(Matthew 24:11) “and many false prophets will appear and deceive many people.”

Today, heresies are spreading rapidly, threatening not only the Korean church but also the world mission field.

② Emotional degradation due to narcissism

Today, “egocentrism” is considered a virtue, and money and pleasure have become the standard of life. In the family, parental authority is lost. This is the “symptom of the last days” that the Bible warns about.

③ Moral collapse and sexual degradation

Just as Sodom and Gomorrah were judged by God for their fornication and homosexuality, laws that go against the order of creation are being legalized in this age.

④ Deception and Spiritual Depravity

Our time is an age of delusion. Evolution, postmodernism, humanism, cultural Marxism, and golden omnipotence whisper the lie that ‘we can live without God’ and cause the saints to drift away

2. Time of Harvest

Currently, the amazing work of God is taking place in the Muslim region of Africa. In the land where missionaries were persecuted and churches were burned as soon as they were established, a completely unexpected spiritual harvest has been taking place in recent years.

3. When the Lord Comes

The restoration of Israel, the turbulence of the situation in the Middle East, the global disasters and famine, and the spread of the gospel around the world are all signs of “the Lord standing at the door.” Economically, there is also increasing disruption due to tariff wars, trade conflicts, and international tensions. During this complex crisis, we must remain vigilant. However, many people live in apathy, irresponsibility, and indifference. But God speaks to us. “Who knows if it is not for this time?”

✿ Application Question 1

- 1) Let's look at the situation that is happening in the global village right now and share how much we are aware of the spiritual crisis of this age. (Are you not like Esther, who is complacent in my peace and ignoring the flow of the world?)
- 2) What is God's mission calling me to be “for this time”? What do you think are my roles and responsibilities in my family, church, and society?

Answer 2. Realize the mission

FAMILY CHURCH WORSHIP PLAN

All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness,

Esther was originally a captive, and she could not be a queen. However, her becoming queen was not a coincidence, but a special work of God. Through Mordecai, Esther realized that the position of queen was God's grace to save the nation.

We are the same. The reason why God called us to this earth as immigrants is to establish the kingdom of God here. This is so that God can use the Korean church as an outpost for missions and as a channel for missions to spread the gospel. God wants to use the Korean church and the Korean church to fulfill the mission of preaching the gospel to the ends of the earth in the last days.

(Matthew 24:14) “This gospel of the kingdom of heaven will be preached to all the world to be a witness to all nations, and then the end will come.”

✿ Application Question 2

- 1) Why did God put me in this place and in this situation?
- 2) What kind of faith decisions and actions should I make to establish the kingdom of God in the place where I am now?

Answer 3. The Completion of Rest - Make a Decision

Once you have realized your mission, you must make a decision now. Esther didn't stop at simply knowing her mission. She decides to obey at the risk of her life.

(verse 16) “If you die, you will die.”

Coming before the king before he calls means death. However, Esther calls for fasting and prayer, choosing to dedicate herself to her people. When enlightenment leads to action, it becomes true obedience. We need the same determination.

- Prayer Resolution: We must pray to seek God's will and receive the power of the Holy Spirit.

- Strategic decisions: Establishing homes, churches, and mission fields requires wisdom and strategy.

- Missionary decision: We must seize the opportunity given by God and go to the ends of the earth.

God is waiting for someone to rise up in this age. God's work begins through those who decide. Mordecai's voice is being heard in our ears today. “Who knows if it is not for this time?” Now is not the time to hesitate, but to discern the time and preach the gospel to the ends of the earth. It is time to not only regard the position given by God as a privilege, but also as a mission. When we make a decision with the faith that if we die, we will die, God will surely accomplish His work through us.

✿ Application Question 3

- 1) Am I putting off any decisions before God's call?
- 2) How can we build up the home, church, and mission field with wisdom and strategy given by God, not just zeal?
